Definitions

Fireworks Stand: A type of transient merchant primarily selling fireworks and related seasonal goods

Ice Cream Truck: A type of mobile food vendor which is allowed to travel from location to location and sell on the street.

Mobile Food Vendor: a self-contained, vehicle-mounted food service unit that returns daily to its base of operation, as approved by DHEC, and is used for the preparation and/or sale of food products

Peddler: anyone traveling by foot or vehicle, from place to place, selling, taking or attempting to take orders for the sale of goods or services.

Solicitor: a person who asks for donations for a charitable purpose.

Transient Merchant: any person who sells goods and who uses a place, such as a parking lot or sidewalk, for those sales without the intention of establishing a permanent business at that location.

Special Regulations

Fireworks Stand, Mobile Food Vendor, and Transient Merchant submittals:

- Letter of permission from property owner allowing use of the property
